A Summer Blessing For Our Children

May our loving God watch over you and keep alive in your heart
all that you have learned this year.

Keep your mind on God.

Remember to pray often and to celebrate your faith,
at home with your family,
and at Mass with your faith family.

Keep your faith in God. Let all the joys of summer remind you of God's goodness.

Never forget that God is always with you,
no matter what. May the God of all creation,
who comes to us in Jesus,
and lives among us in the Holy Spirit, keep you safe, happy and holy this summer and always.

Amen.

14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus sent out 72 of his followers to spread the good news about God. They were not to bring anything with them - no food, no extra clothes or shoes, not even money to spend. They were to visit strangers and completely depend on God to give them what they needed. That took a lot of faith!

Prayer

Dear God, help me to remember that you will give me what I need.

Mission for the Week

Make a card for one of your neighbors, and tell that person, "Jesus loves you!"

A Family Perspective

Family Life Education

Just like the seventy two disciples sent out by Jesus in today's Gospel, families are expected to be missionaries. By our lives, words and life style we proclaim peace, commitment, fidelity and respect to a culture caught up with violence and gratification.

Live The Liturgy - Inspiration For The Week

Jesus tells his disciples, "I am sending you like lambs among wolves." Getting people to see the truth about who they are is not always easy or welcomed. Some people want to believe that they have life under control and they do not need any further advice, direction, or challenge from others. Being heralds of the Gospel means doing precisely that. We come with a message that is not always welcome or desired by our sisters and brothers. Yet, it is desperately needed. People need to be reminded of who they are, who God is, and the necessity of repentance for entering the Kingdom of God. It is not about what we want but what God wants. We are called to be peacemakers and laborers for justice and mercy. Are you willing to bring this challenging message to those who may be indifferent or even hostile to hearing it?

14th Sunday In Ordinary Time

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice.

"Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

"Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

"The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it over-burden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!

Vocation Blurbs

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." Jesus' invitation has become one of our most well known prayers for religious vocations. As his disciples, we must heed this command and make our prayers known to God to provide an increase in these generous souls. Does your family take time together to pray for more vocations to serve Jesus and his Church? Have you noticed someone who might have a vocation to serve alongside others laboring in the harvest? Encouraging and praying for him or her is one of the most generous things you can do for the Church! For help in discerning God's call, visit www.vocations-syracuse.org or call 315-470-1468.

Serving Our Country Always keep in prayer all servicemen and women. From our parish: Rob Smith, Bryan M. Oakes & Anthony Cangemi.
